USEFUL INFORMATION

When you're ready to get out of town and hit the road, car rental provides you with total freedom to explore. Take control of your time and experiences. Linger longer, here and there just as you wish. No group departures, no bags outside your door at dark o'clock, just you and your itinerary in your own time.

Get off the motorways and enjoy the quiet back roads, villages and towns you've longed to see. It's much easier than carrying your luggage - even on wheels - once you're out of the major cities. Your car becomes a sort of mobile home for the duration of your touring - it's the most familiar thing when your environment and hotel is different every few nights.

Planning and selecting your vehicle

Please be careful NOT to purchase based on price alone! The smaller, less expensive vehicles on offer are very small by Australian standards. Baggage and shopping do tend to accumulate on long haul trips, therefore luggage capacity is very important. From a security point of view, you do not want all your worldly goods displayed for everyone to see inside the car either. Please review your plans against the size and capacity of the cars on offer. For example, if you're planning day trips from Florence whilst based at your villa, a small Group B will be fine. However, if you're touring France or Italy we recommend the compact or intermediate. You will need at least a 1.4 litre engine for comfortable motorway travel. The wagon is a very practical option with more leg room in the back and the luggage area is often covered for security.

Do I need to book before I arrive?

We remember our clients who extended a few days in Italy direct with the car company and were so shocked when they were billed more than twice the daily rate they had paid Tempo Holidays. We negotiate advance purchase rates based on our substantial volume - and pass these savings on to you. Please plan and purchase your car rental prior to travel and save.

What do the brochure rates include?

Your standard rate with Tempo Holidays includes:

- A current model vehicle that meets the size and capacity specifications of the group booked
- Unlimited kilometres
- Collision damage waiver (CDW) - excess applies
- Theft protection (TP) - excess applies
- Third party liability
- Local tax/value added tax (VAT)
- 24 hour roadside assistance

Your standard rate with Tempo Holidays excludes:

- Fuel - full tank out, full tank in (except 1 car1, UK)
- Additional drivers unless specified
- Vehicle licensing fee (VLF) unless specified
- Personal accident insurance (PAI)
- Airport/premium location surcharge unless specified - this can include central railway stations and other CBD locations
- Central London's road congestion fee if applicable

Excess

The standard excess applicable is detailed within the price panel for each car rental company in each country.

Insurance

This can be a confusing subject with international car rental. Collision damage waiver (CDW) means the client is still liable for a standard excess in the event of loss or damage to the vehicle. Most car companies offer a further option reducing the excess to zero. This is paid locally at pick up. Clients should make their own judgment about the risk between the two levels of coverage. There is a price for total peace of mind.

Credit card

A credit card for the security deposit/excess coverage required by most car companies at collection is compulsory. This is a security deposit charged by the car company for their asset of which you're about to take delivery. Cash deposits are possible but with more complicated extra/miscellaneous charges.

The car companies will charge for optional extras such as further insurances e.g. personal accident insurance (PAI), pre-paid fuel options - so you do not need to fill the tank up prior to returning the vehicle. These extras can be confusing if you receive them on your credit card bill a few weeks after returning home. We recommend clients read the terms and conditions of the rental agreement prior to signing it and take a copy for their own records. Then it is possible to reconcile all the charges if necessary.

Car type or similar

Please note that car rental companies never guarantee a specific car model or type. They confirm a vehicle based on an international industry standard covering dimensions, engine size and capacity. They use examples but do not guarantee specific makes or models.

Driver's licence

In all Tempo Holidays drive destinations and for all our car rental partners, a valid Australian driver's licence with photo ID is accepted. An international driver's licence is not required (except in Germany, Greece & Italy).

Picking up your vehicle

Tempo Holidays provides you with details for the pick-up location. The car company will require a credit card as a security deposit as detailed above. The car rental company requires you to acknowledge and accept their rental agreement. This is a contractual relationship you are entering into for the duration of the hire. Your signature indicates that you accept and agree to their terms and conditions of rental. We highly recommend you read this document before signing it. You may be offered additional coverages by the car company to reduce the damage excess (to zero) or increase your protection in the event of personal injury (personal accident insurance or PAI), theft, loss or damage (super collision damage waiver or CDW). These products and services are optional and you should satisfy yourself before signing the rental agreement thus accepting them.

100% Australian owned and managed

We strongly recommend you participate in the vehicle condition check. This is a mutual opportunity for you and the car company to agree on any pre-existing damage (marks, scratches etc.) to the vehicle that are noted prior to you accepting responsibility for the car.

Returning your vehicle

Please do not be more than 30 minutes later than the drop-off time as it appears on your voucher or contract, or the car company can charge between a third and a full day's additional rental at the local rate. The fuel tank should be full too, unless you took a pre-paid fuel option. It is much more costly to have the car company fill the tank at their rate. Some locations have secured 'key drops' if they are unattended at the time you're returning the vehicle. It is not usually possible to get a final receipt at this time and clients are encouraged to avoid this situation if you do require a closed contract receipt at termination of the rental. This is not usually an issue at airports unless it is very early or late.

Driving in Eastern Europe

There are often restrictions about driving a car into Eastern Europe. Some car rental companies will allow you to do so, but only after paying a surcharge. Other car rental companies will not let you take the car into Eastern Europe at all. If you are planning on driving into Eastern Europe, please contact Tempo Holidays Reservations to enquire if it is allowed with your rental.

Imagine a week in your own Italian villa - exploring medieval hill towns, vineyards, olive groves and frescoed churches; shopping for local delicacies at the markets; enjoying a glass of Chianti while watching the sun set over the Tuscan hills. All this can be yours to experience with a villa stay from our Villa programme 'Dimore by Guido Posarelli'. Choose from one of 40 self-contained apartments within the restored 12th century castle of Montegufoni, located 20km from Florence; or select from a wide range of villas and apartments catering for 2-16 people and spread throughout Tuscany and Umbria. Ideally suited for a self-drive holiday, most villas are located in the picturesque countryside just outside small towns and villages, and within easy driving distance from the acclaimed towns of Florence, Pisa, Siena, San Gimignano and Arezzo. Properties are rented on a weekly basis, strictly from Saturday to Saturday, with a selected number of apartments and villas available for short stays.

Castle Montegufoni is a wonderful 12th century castle, with a magnificent tower modelled on the Palazzo Vecchio in Florence. Situated on a large estate with vineyards and olive groves, the castle is located 20km from Florence near the village of Montagnana, 4km from Montespertoli. Owned and operated by the Posarelli family, it has been fully restored to provide rustic, individually decorated apartments accommodating 2-6 people with private bathroom and kitchen facilities. There are two swimming pools, gardens and a car park for guest use. Fresh produce and olive oil from the estate is available for sale in the old cellars of the castle. All apartments are equipped with basic kitchen facilities and sufficient linen, towels, crockery and cutlery for the maximum number of people accommodated. Castle Montegufoni is not air-conditioned and access to some apartments may be via steps.

Tempo Holidays prides itself on the partnerships we have developed with some of the best airlines to provide our customers with a range of choices and services to complement your chosen destination, budget and specific travelling requirements.

To help you make this important choice, we have compiled a list of factors, which we recommend that you consider and discuss with your travel consultant to ensure that your final decision is the right one for you and your travel needs.

- price
- flight time
- arrival/departure time
- transit time
- frequent flyer points
- class of travel
- number of stops
- cabin space/leg room/seat pitch

These are all important factors when making your choice.
